

You are invited to a
'Regional Workshop'
Plum Point, Great Northern Peninsula
May 2 – 3

*A joint initiative of The Red Ochre Regional Board Inc. (Zone 7),
The Nordic Economic Development Corporation (Zone 6)
And
The Leslie Harris Centre of Regional Policy and Development of Memorial University*

Are you or is your organization:

- Interested in the development of the Great Northern Peninsula to its full potential?
- Interested in making a difference in the lives of people on the Great Northern Peninsula?
- Interested in networking and learning more about regional policy and development?
- Interested in potential new opportunities for collaboration with Memorial University?

A 'Regional Workshop' is an excellent opportunity to discover new opportunities in the region and to help you address your community's social and economic issues. This one-day workshop will be held on Thursday, May 3, 2007.

The Harris Centre will also be organizing a 'Memorial Presents' session on the evening of Wednesday, May 2, 2007 about advancing the tourism industry on the Great Northern Peninsula. This will be followed by a panel discussion and question and answer session. This event is also open to the general public, and a reception will follow.

If you are interested in participating in either or both of these events, or if you have any questions, please contact Keith Dunne at the Harris Centre, kdunne@mun.ca or call 729-1961 for more information and to confirm your attendance.

For more information, including a detailed agenda for this event, visit www.mun.ca/harriscentre/workshop.php.

Please pass this message on to members of your community, organization, or group who may be interested!
